2025 St. Patrick's Parade King & Queen Hugh & Christine Gallagher

A true power couple of the Lehigh Valley, Hugh and Christine Gallagher are stepping into the royal spotlight this year, bringing with them a legacy that's steeped in tradition and community spirit.

Hugh, a proud lifelong resident of the Lehigh Valley, and Christine, a Philadelphia native who's called this area home since 2013, are no strangers to the Allentown St. Patrick's Parade. Hugh's connection to this beloved event runs deep – his parents, Hugh and Jean Gallagher, were crowned King and Queen in 1995 and have remained active members of the Parade Committee ever since. For Hugh, the parade isn't just an event; it's a family tradition. He's been at every parade since his birth in 1967 and has marched in every one since his parents' reign. Christine has also embraced the parade, attending each year since moving to the Lehigh Valley over a decade ago.

Together, Hugh and Christine have raised seven children, with three who attended Allentown Central Catholic High School and two currently enrolled—Jonathan, a 10th grader, and Adalin, a 9th grader. And as if their family isn't already big enough, they're also proud grandparents to three little ones. Both Hugh and Christine hail from large, tight-knit Irish Catholic families. Hugh, the eldest of six siblings, and Christine, the youngest of six, have always known the value of community, hard work, and giving back. They're the dynamic duo behind The Gallagher Search Group, and when they're not running their business, they're supporting local non-profits and hosting events that bring people together. Their annual Christmas party has transformed into a heartwarming fundraiser for friends and family to contribute to meaningful causes.

The St. Patrick's Parade holds a special place in their hearts. Every year, it has become their favorite day to celebrate Irish heritage, family, and community. Now, as they are honored with the title of King and Queen, they are beyond thrilled to be part of the parade's storied history. A true testament to their dedication, passion, and love for the Lehigh Valley, Hugh and Christine Gallagher are ready to lead the charge in 2025 with pride and joy!

Comhghairdeas! Congratulations!

A Brief History of Saint Patrick's Day in Allentown -1900-

Around the turn of the century the sixth ward was the heart of the Irish community. Most Irishmen belonged to the Immaculate Conception church on Ridge Avenue. (Allentown's oldest Catholic Church, 1857) In addition, on Ridge Avenue there was a Young Men's Temperance Society and the Hibernia Fire Company Social Club where many Irishmen belonged for social activities. We believe all of these groups had events on and around St. Patrick's Day. However, it is said that a certain Barney McNulty stood atop the five story Bellevue Apartment house on Ridge and Gordon Streets and blew his bugle every St. Patrick's Day. No other evidence exists of the celebrations of 100 years ago.

-1955 to 1974-

A committee of mostly first and sixth ward business and political leaders formed a St. Patrick's Day Observance Society. Men such as John McHugh, his brother Joe, Francis McLaughlin, J. Raymond Cramsey, Thomas Egan and others ran the first parade through the first and sixth wards only for at least two years. By 1958 the parade was large enough to go from 12th and Hamilton Streets to the immaculate Conception Church on Ridge Avenue. This parade ran every year except 1974 when a fuel crisis and the deaths of some of the active committee members led to the dissolution of this committee. In their hey days this committee ran supplements in green in the Morning Call and hosted a large banquet at Agricultural Hall to honor citizens who saluted the Irish.

-1975 to Present-

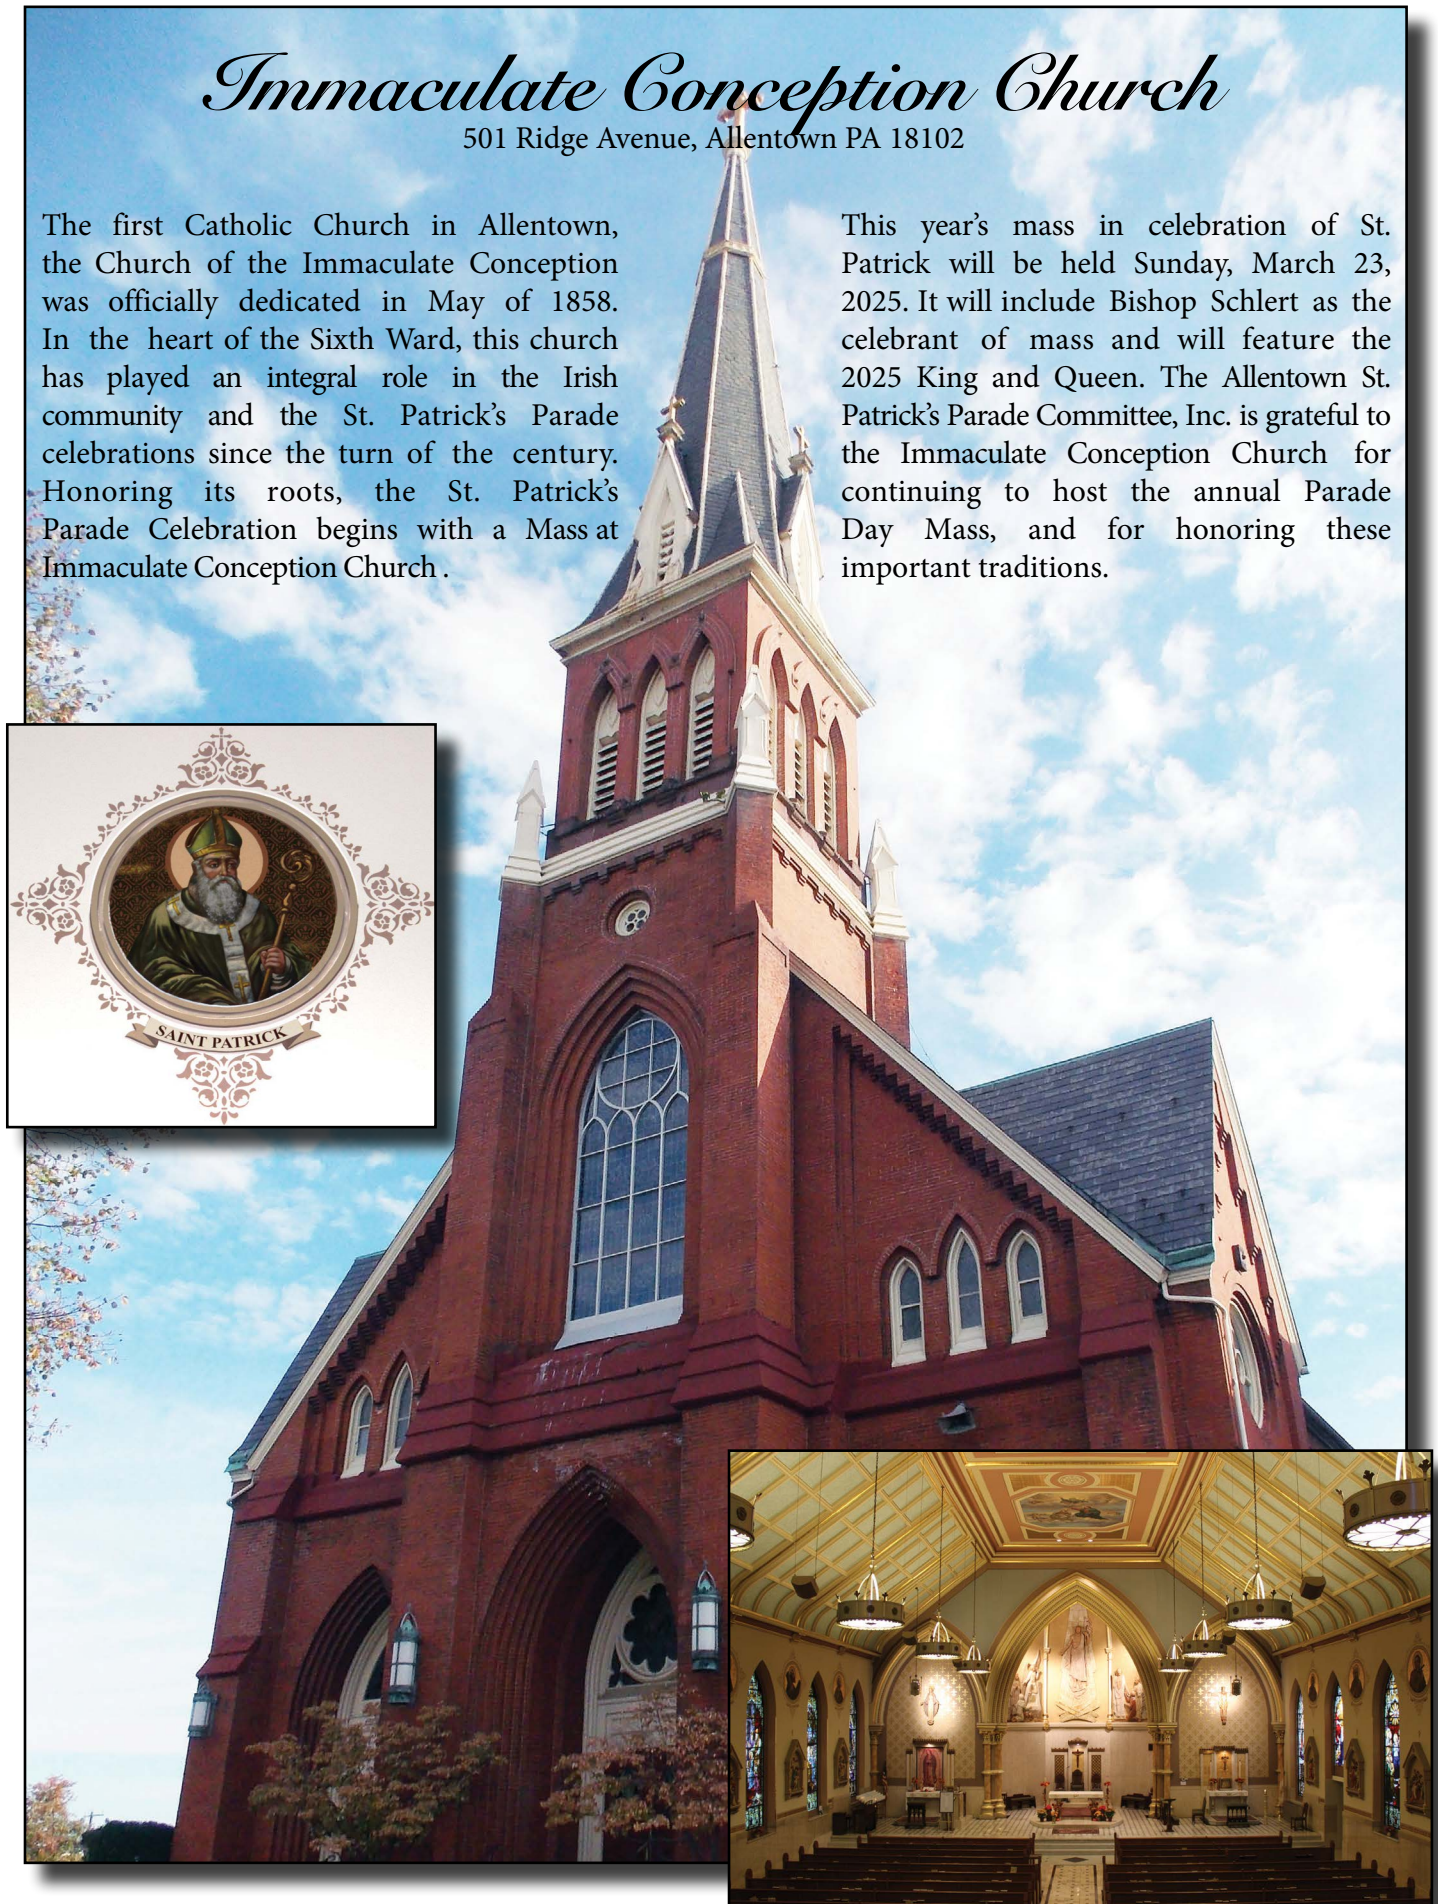

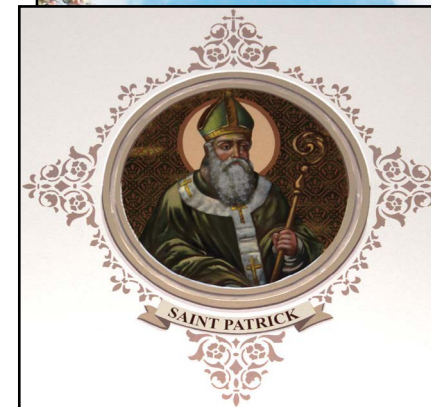

A small group of first and sixth ward citizens, attending a banquet at the Allentown Italian Club were expressing remorse to each other that the 1974 parade was cancelled. Among this group were Jerry Weber, Dick McGee, Jim Nolf, Sue Flood, and Jim Spang. The group, with less than six weeks until the March 1975 Parade, decided to try to put a parade together. Mayor Daddona was contacted, meetings were held, last minute invitations extended to bands and marchers. The net result was a 5-division parade that came down Hamilton Street with Jerry Weber, the first President, Dick McGee - Vice President, Jim Nolf-Treasurer, and Orpha Ockenhouse-Secretary. This new committee called itself the "St. Patrick's Day Parade Committee". At the same time, the first and sixth ward old-timers at the Harugari Hall on Gordon Street were holding a St. Patrick's ball. The ball was ultimately taken over by the Parade Committee and moved to the Fearless Fire Company in the 1980's. In 2013 the ball, or Coronation Celebration as it is now called, was moved back to its home at Agricultural Hall. The committee goes on with many of the original members still belonging. Jim Spang the past President goes back to the founding days in the 1970's. Committee President, John Chaya, has taken us into the net phase, moving the parade route to the beautiful West End of Allentown. The current St. Patrick's Parade is by far the best and biggest event in the history of the parade in Allentown.

Immaculate Conception Church

501 Ridge Avenue, Allentown PA 18102

The first Catholic Church in Allentown, the Church of the Immaculate Conception was officially dedicated in May of 1858. In the heart of the Sixth Ward, this church has played an integral role in the Irish community and the St. Patrick's Parade celebrations since the turn of the century. Honoring its roots, the St. Patrick's Parade Celebration begins with a Mass at Immaculate Conception Church.

This year's mass in celebration of St. Patrick will be held Sunday, March 23, 2025. It will include Bishop Schlert as the celebrant of mass and will feature the 2025 King and Queen. The Allentown St. Patrick's Parade Committee, Inc. is grateful to the Immaculate Conception Church for continuing to host the annual Parade Day Mass, and for honoring these important traditions.

Barney McNulty Spirit Award

In the early days of the parade when it was still in the Irish 6th ward, Barney McNulty would climb to the rooftop of the Bellevue Hotel building and blow his bugle as a sign of the beginning of the St. Patrick's Celebration. A great Irishman he was, and in his honor, we are naming the Spirit Award, which is given from time to time to a person (or persons) that demonstrate great dedication to their Irish heritage and to the promotion of the accomplishments of the Irish people in the community. Barney's heirs are still very much involved in the Parade Committee, and Hugh and Jean Gallagher and family are honored to participate in the awarding of the Barney McNulty Spirit Award. Hugh is the great grand nephew of Barney McNulty!

The recipient of the 2024 Barney McNulty Spirit Award has devoted countless hours to promoting the Parade and its surrounding events. He has made tremendous use of his technological background, creativity, energy, and incredible good humor and will to assist in ways no one could have anticipated. He coordinates social media posts, our beautiful billboards via Adams Outdoor Advertising, print media and press releases. He is constantly striving to find new and creative ways to promote our events, working tirelessly and always with a smile. The Allentown St. Patrick's Parade Committee is delighted to present this much-deserved award to a very special gentleman, our 2017 Parade King, Mr. Colby Q. Kent.

Proudly Announces...

The registration of the Allentown St. Patrick's Parade Tartan on the Scottish Register of Tartans. Designed by 2010 Queen Wendy Ferguson with the assistance of the committee and with special thanks to the staff of USA Kilts, the tartan made its debut at the 2019 St. Patrick's Parade Events. Items are now available for order exclusively through the Allentown St. Patrick's Parade Committee! Please contact diznee2014@gmail.com for more information!

The colors;

Green to represent Ireland and celebrate Allentown's Irish heritage,
And to represent Central Catholic High School in Allentown.

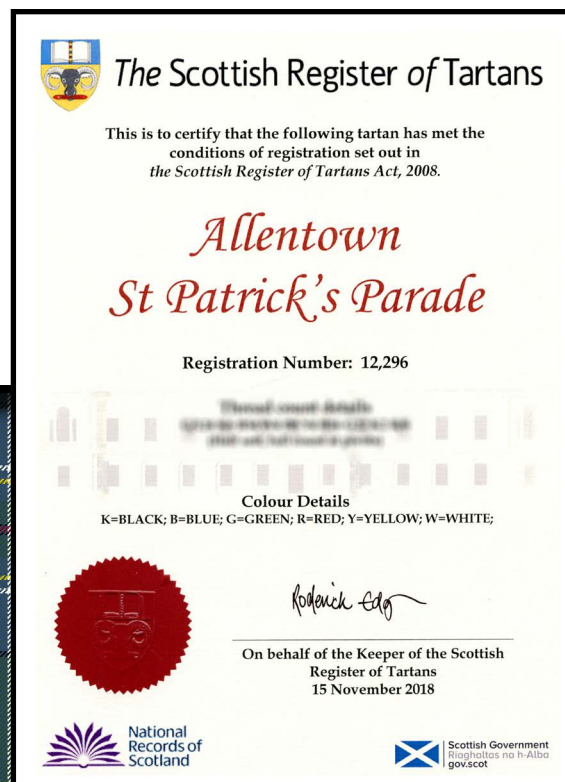

Blue to represent Dierfuff High School in Allentown.

Yellow represents loyalty, and William Allen High School in Allentown.

Red pays tribute to Hamilton Street, considered the heart of the city,
And the route the parade took for many decades.

White represents purity, Black represents grief and remembrance of loved ones.

Red, white & blue were also chosen to represent the American flag.

Program for children bridges the gap of Irish differences

By JENNIFER RITENOUR Of The Morning Call

Back home in Belfast, Northern Ireland, they would not speak to each other. Their religious backgrounds would hinder any attempts at friendship. In Bethlehem, however, Helen Bingham, 11, and Margaret Winters, 10, are learning to live together.

hem for six weeks with the Joseph Foley family as part of Project Children, a program designed to lessen prejudice and relieve Irish children from the strife and turmoil in Northern Ireland.

The program, which originated in 1975, brings Catholic and Protestant children between the ages of 9 and 12 as well as the young relatives of political prisoners to the United States.

The girls, part of a group of 506 Irish children participating in the program this summer, arrived in Bethlehem Tuesday night after their flight from Ireland.

Despite the long flight and the six-hour time difference, the girls are already enjoying themselves. "They're so excited," Foley said. "When we were driving in from New York, they were amazed and awed."

John and Marjorie Chaya

John and Marjorie Chaya, along with their sons, John Jr. and Christopher, were the owners of Jack Callaghan's Ale House. John is the grandson of Jack Callaghan, the namesake of the Ale House which they owned and operated from 1998 to 2020. Jack Callaghan's was a beacon to those who craved the warmth and welcoming of a true Irish Pub, enjoyed good conversation, pleasant surroundings, and Irish Hospitality. John and Marjorie have six grandchildren: Annah, Alivia and Campbell Chaya, daughters of John and Marcy, Liam Patrick Rooney, son of Kelley and Patrick Rooney, and Lillian Kelly and Sydney Nash, daughters of Christopher and Maria Chaya. The long tradition of Irish Spirit will live on in this next generation of the Chaya/Rooney families... "All Callaghans' at heart."

CELEBRATING 70 YEARS!
Always Fresh. Always Local

Like No Other Market!

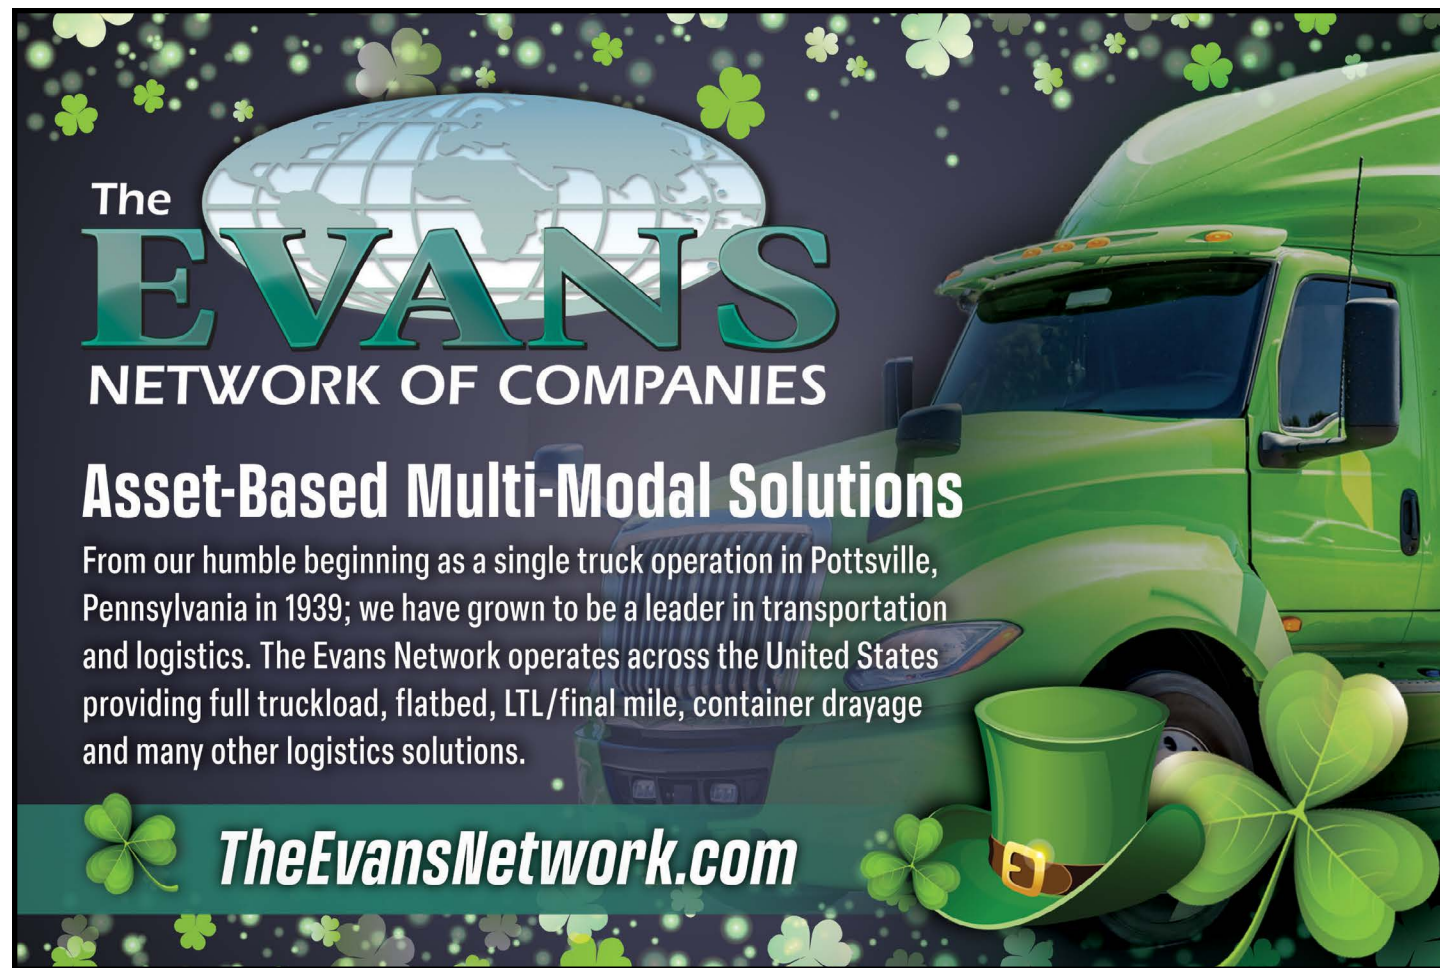

Get closer to your grower, your butcher, your distiller, and your baker. Discover the best of local flavor, right in your own backyard. From fresh cut meats and savory cheeses, to handcrafted spirits and perfectly-ripened fruits, there's something for everyone and every taste. Come spend some time with us and see why the Allentown Farmers Market has become a Lehigh Valley institution. Take your time, walk a little slower and enjoy your visit. Because no two visits are ever the same. See you soon, neighbor.

Open all year-round!

THE PATRICK FERGUSON COMMUNITY SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

The Patrick Ferguson Community Service Scholarship is awarded in loving memory of Pat who was an instrumental person involved in the Allentown St. Patrick's Day Parade Committee, as well as the AOH. He is fondly remembered for sitting at the front row of the Coronation Ball with his great big smile watching the kids dance year after year. He always valued community service and so this scholarship is awarded to a dancer who understands the importance of community outreach and supports the smaller OGQ dance outs.
